Jean Philippe Giacomini is coming back At Versailles Equestrian

J.P. Giacomini studied dressage full-time with Master Nuno Oliveira and at the Portuguese National Stud of Alter Real for over 4 years. He trained his first of 15 Grand Prix dressage horses when aged 17 and rode horses trained by direct students of French, German masters. J.P. has helped 10,000+ remedial horses during clinics taught in 13 countries and is widely considered a master at training Piaffe and Passage with widely different breeds. His comprehensive training system applies to all disciplines, resulting in improved behavior, biomechanics and soundness. A former Olympic coach to riders from five countries, J.P.'s students won 4 gold and 1 silver medals in European and World Championships. J.P. lives with his wife Shelley, a reputed equine photographer, in Lexington, KY.
